CONCERNING THE GAME.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

By "Wideawake."

Nobody has any reasonable grounds for complaint at the want of interest in the four teams that are to solve the premiership question this season. It has been maintained, one might say, almost to the end of the first round.

* * *

Weeks ago many considered the matter settled—South, Essendon, Carlton and Geelong were absolute certainties.

* * *

Subsequently surprises came along, and now, almost at the end of the first round, the position has not been absolutely settled. There is that amount of chance in regard to the fourth place which might mean that after all their brilliant work that has received the approval of the populace Geelong might be dislodged. Personally, I consider that they will keep the position by beating University and Richmond. If they do not win these engagements—well, I should say that it will mean that teams will not break into the season's work by taking holiday trips, and that they will have to wait until the end of the season.

* * *

Being game to the last, satisfied with their general play, but bemoaning the want of a star forward to rake in goals, Collingwood has not lost hope of being among the warriors of Round II. They have occupied a place as one of the four ever since the League was a league, and they will feel lonesome out in the cold this year.

* * *

Their feeling of hope is shared by Fitzroy, but here, too, the job of winning a way in by beating Collingwood and Essendon is much harder than that of Geelong.

* * *

The first defeat of the home team was dealt out by South Melbourne on Saturday at Geelong. It was a Red Letter Day at the seaside to begin with, and a Red and White Letter Day and Night to end with. First, all Geelong seemed to have reached the ground an hour before starting time of play; then South Melbourne seemed to have been depopulated of men folk. It was the day of Exodus.

* * *

The South team went down by the morning train in order that they should have ample time for the preliminary preparations, instead of having to bolt to the ground like a crowd dashing to the scene of a big fire.

* * *

Hundreds crossed the bay in the boat, and thousands reached the Pivot in three special trains.

* * *

Two parties who missed both boat and trains set out at 1 o'clock in motor cars, determined to be at the Corio ground in time to see the umpire start the battle.

* * *

Large numbers drove in from the outlying districts, and even the horses round the ground seemed to be interested in the game. Anyhow, they were not alarmed by the roar of the bar-racking.

And what a volume of noise was sent up. Geelong's citizens had waited for the Great Day, and South's supporters did not go down to keep quiet. They were throwing out the war cry all the afternoon, and altogether the afternoon was one of intense excitement.

* * *

And what was the net result? Why, that for the first time this season Geelong were beaten on their own ground. People were beginning to think at Geelong that the blue and whites were the Invincible Eagles down home. South Melbourne declined to subscribe to that opinion, and left home full of hope and determination.

* * *

They were without their captain, Charlie Ricketts, who did not care to run the risk of a breakdown with his injured leg—he wants both sound and strong for the finals. "Rick" was in the press box with us, and before the game had advanced far caused the Geelong inhabitants of "Scribe Castle" to look up by expressing the opinion that South Melbourne were too good for the home lads. The skipper—who, by the way, is an old Geelong boy—was right.

The strong cross wind had a marked influence upon the game. It seemed to disconcert Geelong more so than the Southerners, who were a powerful, even side, in a game that was played in bold, determined spirit from the word "Go." South Melbourne beat their opponents in all points, even in their aerial work, from which Geelong have been noted, the Pivot lads having to play second fiddle. The third quarter provided the best football of the day. Each side dashed in to force the pace, but South played with system and judgment. Geelong at times were rattled. It was a gruelling quarter and told its tale on Geelong, who faded away, tired and beaten by 19 points.

* * *

Plenty of vigour was infused into the Essendon-Melbourne match—rather much so at times—while incidents of a petty spiteful nature were not absent, although they were not observed by the umpires.

The game may be summarised thus: Unattractive in the first quarter; livelier and consequently more interesting in the second term, with Essendon distinctly the better side, surer in marking and faster all round; ditto in the third quarter. But in the final quarter Melbourne made a series of splendid efforts, and warmed up the 'Dons in great style. The lead of the latter at three-quarter time was too much for the reds, and they were beaten.

At Carlton there were periods of anxiety for the supporters of the home team, for Richmond put up an unexpectedly good game. The blues always appeared to have a bit in reserve, and did not feel called upon to extend themselves. There was just a possibility of their delaying the finishing off process too long for Richmond, but eventually they unwound, and in five minutes rapped up three goals, winning by nine points.

After the fine show made against South Melbourne and Carlton—the teams which at present look likely to play off for the premiership—it was expected that St. Kilda would have pushed Fitzroy hard for the honours. But there was a lamentable falling off in their form, and Fitzroy, with speed and systematic work, ran them tired by the end of the third quarter, paralysed them in the final term.

The Collingwood and University match was uneventful, except for the fact that the former's kicking was very poor.

Under ordinary circumstances the 'Woodsmen would have turned several easy shots into sixers, but with exasperating regularity points only were scored.

The students tried hard to win in the last quarter, with a fairly strong breeze behind them. Their forwards, however, were weak, and Collingwood held them off for the major part of the term. Altogether, it was a lifeless game, being devoid of system, with no attempt to play for position.

called out to Lowe to watch a certain University player who was unguarded. Lowe laconically replied: "I've got a bloke here; don't know what to do with him." The "bloke," it should be mentioned, was little for its determination to discourage rough play and anything likely to bring football into discredit. The investigation committee is carrying out its duties fearlessly and in a manner that must have the best results.

For a long time rough work was permitted to pass unpunished, owing to the belief that umpires were afraid to bring delinquents before the committee lest they should lose their appointments. That belief has been discontinuing on the lines it has mapped out, the League will deserve the support of all who have the true interests of the game at heart.

pelled, and officials feel—as they have been repeatedly shown—that the League is ready at all times to stand by them. The football administration has never been sounder or more fearless than it has been this season, and keenly disappointed on hearing that Ricketts' injured leg was not sufficiently strong to permit of his taking the field against Geelong. The man was a bad tipster who said: "Without Ricketts the team will be beaten."

The BEST and only the BEST!

WHAT CHAMPIONS REQUIRE.

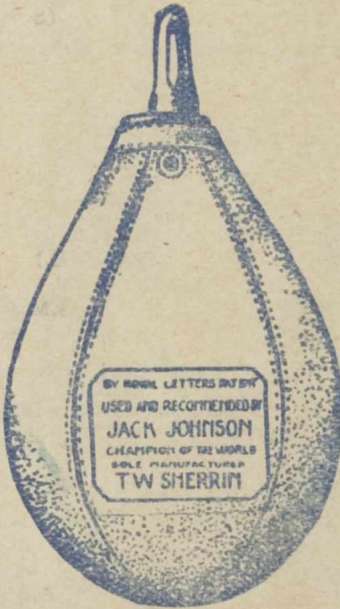

It is only natural that for the great and glorious Australian game the best of Australian goods should be manufactured by the best Australian maker.

T.W. SHERRIN

Acknowledged by all sporting institutions and champions,

BOXING, CRICKET, and FOOTBALL,

as the leading manufacturer of Australia. Testimonials as to the superiority of his sporting goods have been unhesitatingly given by the world's champions who have visited Australia from time to time during the last twenty years.

JACK JOHNSON, the world's champion pugilist, pronounces Sherrin's boxing gloves and punching balls better than any he has used in England or America. And the champion has used many in fighting his way to fame.

DICK LEE, who was for years the champion goal-kick, bears testimony to the superiority of the Sherrin ball.

The Footballers' Favorite.

The footballer has yet to be found who does not give the palm to the Sherrin ball as the best that can be kicked. The "Kangaroo" brand on each is the trade mark registered throughout the Commonwealth.

League clubs prefer the "Kangaroo" brand, and no club is considered complete without its supply of Sherrin's best.

THE AUSTRALASIAN FOOTBALL COUNCIL.

ever since the Interstate matches have been played have insisted on the use of the "Kangaroo" brand ball, and in the great carnival in Adelaide last year the pleasure of the players was increased by the knowledge that they were using balls from the Sherrin factory.

SHERRIN'S ATHLETIC GOODS

have won distinction at international and Interstate industrial exhibitions, among the awards being the Prize Medal and First Order of Merit in Adelaide, 1881; First Order of Merit, Melbourne, 1879-80; and the Diploma of Merit, Centennial Exhibition 1888-89.

Obtainable at all the leading Sporting-goods Warehouses throughout Australia.

SOUTH MELBOURNE'S GOAL

PURINA CRISPIES

THE WHOLE OF THE WHEAT thoroughly cooked and toasted. AUSTRALIAN MADE.

MEN OF THE TIME.

PLAYERS AND PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

By "Chatterer."

In the first quarter at East Melbourne there was an incident worth chronicling as an item of interest. Fred. Baring fired for goal, but the ball hit the left goal-post, and rebounding was caught by Baring twenty yards out from goal. It demonstrated the power that was in the kick.

* * *

One of the finest kicks that scored a goal this season was seen at East Melbourne. Lane was the kickest, and friend and foe alike cheered the effort. While Essendonians were cheering the kick Melbourne were doing that and a little more—they were giving well-deserved praise to Brereton, who had shepherded Bowe off to permit Allen to take the pass from Tomkins.

* * *

He who hesitates is lost. Flintoft has experienced that. In the second quarter at East Melbourne he grabbed the ball on the road wing, and halted to take a look where to play it. To his great surprise, he found himself on the grass. Cameron had descended on him like a marriage proposal to an old maid—it was so sudden.

* * *

It was not a tribute to their sense of sportsmanship when a section of the Essendon barrackers raised a whoop and a roar whenever Alf. George, the Melbourne captain, figured in the play. To hear the yell of delight when he was once sent sprawling, fairly enough, one would have thought that some extraordinary good fortune had come their way.

* * *

Harry Brereton was far from well when he took the field at East Melbourne. He was well watched by Bowe, but before the day ended had bagged a brace of goals.

Cope was prevented from playing for Melbourne on Saturday by an accident at his work. He was scalded on the face on Friday by a jet of steam while at his work.

* * *

A player on Saturday at one of the League grounds was posing like a beauty actor. One rather appreciated the ironical barracking that was served out with the object of knocking the conceit out of him. A woman voiced the sentiments of many when she remarked "how ridiculous" as the comment on a pose that was clearly intended to be particularly fetching, if not absolutely killing.

* * *

This is the order in which the goals were registered at East Melbourne on Saturday:—Maguire, McLeod, Lane, Kirby, Walker, Armstrong, Kyme, Walker, Sykes, Brereton, Armstrong, Shea, Sykes, Brereton, Shea, Allen.

* * *

Essendonians are delighted with the fine improvement shown by Walker, who is a power in the ruck just now. Another source of comfort is the return to form of McLeod, who was great against Melbourne. His marking was in the high class.

* * *

That consistently brilliant rover, Cameron, was in his best form at East Melbourne. Tomkins, the Melbourne rover, was also great, taking the game right through, although at the start he was not as much in evidence as usual.

ADDRESS

54 MARKET ST., MELBOURNE

A flattering reception was accorded L. White, the Essendon half-back, when he entered the field on Saturday for the first time since his illness. White played a fine game, and, with Bowe and Belcher, constituted a crackajack half-back line.

Flintoft and Sewart were the opposing centres at East Melbourne, and both did well. Sewart had his usual number of hard bumps and falls, and was on the ground more often than any other player.

Interest was centred in the duels between McKenzie (Melbourne) and Chalmers (Essendon). The latter lasted best, and in the final quarter beat the Melbournian decisively in a dash from the centre out to and along the right wing. Still, on the day, McKenzie was a busy little fellow—and had a remarkable number of free kicks.

I heard it said on Saturday—and I was pleased to hear it, as I am sure you will be—that Busbridge's injury, which hastened his retirement from the game, was not nearly as serious as was at first thought. Busbridge was at East Melbourne, and was without a stick, although he walked with a slight limp. Some of the 'Dons regret the announcement of his retirement now, for they are of the opinion that Busbridge would be of great value in the finals.

Dick Grigg, the pride of Geelong, was much below form on Saturday. Which is not to be wondered at when it is known that he was suffering from the effects of influenza.

Billy Eason was unfortunate in the second quarter. The scores were even, and then a chance to take Geelong into the lead came his way. He sprang for a high mark and descended on his head. The contact with mother earth shook him up, but he managed to rake in a point.

Orchard again showed himself a clever forward at Geelong, but his good work was discounted by faulty kicking.

Scown was told off to keep the bright eye on Caldwell. He followed orders, too, and carried them out well.

Marshall was the Geelong shining light in the ruck against South, and in defence L. Armstrong was the bold and capable one for the task.

* * *

Little Joe Prince had a lot to do at Geelong. He was as brisk and as busy as a bee all day.

peatedly cheered by the crowd for the magnificence of their work at Geelong, and Scobie thoroughly deserved the credit he got for his superb play on the defence lines, which were served admirably by Thomas and

R. Bowden, Richmond.

Geelong went to Sydney and played the worst game of the season at the Corio ground. Mortimer went to Adelaide, but gave the best exhibition he has made against Geelong.

* * *

Hiskens and Boxer Milne were repeatedly cheered by the crowd for the magnificence of their work at Geelong, and Scobie thoroughly deserved the credit he got for his superb play on the defence lines, which were served admirably by Thomas and

* * *

Old Bill Walker and Norris were a great pair in Fitzroy's ruck against St. Kilda, and the nippy work of the rover, Shaw was attractive and effective.

Colhoun, a Windsor Junior, was given a run in senior company, and he made a promising debut with St. Kilda against Fitzroy.

The Richmond skipper put Thorpe up to the forward line on Saturday. The change was profitable, for Thorpe toed three sixers.

Clarrie Hall's roving and forward work was such as to make him one of the stars on the Richmond side at Carlton. The burly Herbert was also in top-notch form in the ruck. Reeves' half-back performances, too, were most effective.

Once again has it to be said of Billy Dick that he was Carlton's best on Saturday. Truly a great half-back is the self-same William.

George Bruce has not lost any of his skill owing to the worries of the secretaryship. Carlton's supporters were again delighted by the clever, brainy play he showed them against Richmond.

The touch of comedy in the Carlton-Richmond match was provided by Moffatt, who was told off to watch Valentine. He was like a shadow.

Doig returned to the field again last Saturday, after an absence of several weeks. He showed that he still retains his cleverness, being the most effective of University's forwards. Park, who is a pretty sure kick, accounted for three goals, Willis did a lot of good work.

Brake, University's crack, was not so noticeable on Saturday. He and Hughes, Collingwood's tall follower, were constantly in opposition, with the latter having a bit the best of it. Dave Greenham, either back or forward, played a fine game.

Denehy was the best of the students last Saturday. His roving was tricky and plucky throughout. Eric Woods kicked-in in fine style, and others to come under notice were Elliott, "Smith," Hurrey, Martin and Trood.

Les. Hughes did everything that was expected of him, except kick straight. He missed some ridiculously easy shots, especially in the third quarter. His ruck play, however, was of the best.

Collingwood's centre line, composed of Jackson, McHale and Gibb, were a bit better than that of the students. Gibb played like the artist he is—cool and clever throughout.

Sadler again demonstrated his ability on the half-back line, Green and Anderson also being shining lights in that department. Ex-artilleryman Shorten was quieter than usual. Gilchrist, Cockram, Laxton, and Wilkinson were the best of the others.

Young Burns, who came from Shepparton and played his first game for St. Kilda on Saturday, shaped in a most promising style. The lad is a nephew of Peter Burns—Peter the Great in football.

Bert Pierce was in clinking form at Fitzroy, but Cumberland was the best of the tricolours. Dangerfield was going grandly until injured.

Jack Cooper played a fine strong game for Fitzroy against St. Kilda, and Billy Marchbank's defensive work was excellent.

Out for the rest of this and for three matches of next season—P. Jory, of St. Kilda, who was charged on Wednesday night with having elbowed Shaw and Walker, of Fitzroy; C. Norris (Fitzroy) is out for two weeks for having struck W. Eicke, of St. Kilda; and G. Morrissey, the St. Kilda captain, until the end of May, 1913, for having used language considered abusive by Umpire Nosedá during the Fitzroy-St. Kilda match.

There was a good deal of amusement at the meeting of the investigation committee on Wednesday night, when L. Mortimer, of South Melbourne, and W. Walker, of Fitzroy, were giving evidence. A. Eason, of Geelong, had been charged with having struck Mortimer. The complaint was dismissed. Mortimer said that he was not struck during the game, but he fell over owing to a bad ankle. The fall gained for him a free kick. Walker said he took no notice of the elbow work that was alleged the St. Kilda player, Jory, indulged in, and naively replied in answer to the president (Mr. McCracken): "Elbowing is not supposed to enter into the game, according to the rules—and the umpires."

THE FOOTBALL RECORD.

THE VERY LATEST.

Essendon has received another recruit from the Broughams in Bickford, who will play this afternoon. Caine and Harvey will reappear. Se-wart, McLeod and Kyme will be having a spell.

Green, F. McDonald and Johnson have been omitted from Carlton's 18. Their places will be filled by Shooter Ford, Clancy and Jamieson. Captain Wells has not yet recovered from his injury. Topping may resume training next week.

Dr. Cordner will help 'Varsity against Geelong this afternoon. McLeod may also be in the team. Kneen and Dr. "Smith" are unlikely to strip again.

Downes, from Fitzroy Juniors, will be tried on the wing by 'Roy to-day. He will take McArthur's place. The latter is not well enough to play.

St. Kilda will try out a couple more country players this afternoon in Eb-bott (a wing man from Wangaratta) and Booth (a follower from the Morn-ington. Peninsula. Paton is another new man in the colours.

South Melbourne's committee will not definitely pick their 18 till at the ground this afternoon. Bower and Abbott are unable to play, and possibly Mullaly will be an absentee. Ricketts and Franks will be in the team. Joe Prince had a touch of influenza on Thurs-day.

There is every probability of Geelong playing the same team that took the field on Saturday last.

Richmond will be without Burns to-day. He has gone to Mildura. Far-rell and Sheehan will be in again. The other absentee will probably be Jones.

Melbourne have substituted Wellington, "Hughes" and Cope for Flintoft, Sykes and Strong. "Hughes" will be easily recognised as one of last year's prominent players in an assumed name.

Rowell and Ambler will replace Wil-kinson and Gray in Collingwood's team this afternoon. Gray has influenza.
